

C 33 AD → C 67 AD

New Testament covers a period of less than 100 years. From the beginning of the ministry of Jesus to the end of the Acts of the Apostles is only a little more than 30 years

The jews persecuted the Christians

— (64) Saint Paul (Originally flourished 1st Century. The great Apostle of the Gentiles. Born at TARSUS in CILICIA. By birth a Jew and a Roman Citizen. He did more for the extension, if not the exposition of the Christian faith at its first promulgation than any of the Apostles and perhaps all of them together, and it is questionable

if but for him, it would have become, as it has become, the professed religion of the most civilized section of the world. He was a tentmaker. Educated in Jerusalem, He became a zealous nationalist & probably a Pharisee. Shortly after martyrdom of St. Stephen, Paul was commissioned by the Chief Priest to help suppress Christianity in Damascus (AD 33). In Damascus he was found by the disciple ANANIAS

AD 33

Paul of Tarsus "Converted" on the Road to Damascus. Was a tentmaker from Tarsus in Asia Minor, son of a Roman citizen and a Pharisee of the tribe of Benjamin. Educated in Jerusalem, whose chief scribe sent him to DAMASCUS to help suppress Christianity there. On the road Paul was temporarily blinded by a vision and heard a voice, "Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" He was led into the city, and, after recovering his sight, he consented to be baptized a Christian by ANANIAS.

By emphasizing the divinity of Christ, Paul's teaching found an irreparable breach between Judaism and Christianity and established the Pauline foundations of the Christian Church.

FIRST GREAT MONEY PANIC IN HIS TORY

Emperor Meiji checked financial disaster by promptly placing $4,000,000 in coin from the imperial treasury as well as central banks to be loaned to hard pressed debtors.

AGRIPPINA The Elder died AD 33
She was daughter of M. VIPSANIUS AGRIPPA and JULIA, daughter of AUGUSTUS; wife of GERMANICUS and mother of CALIGULA and Agrippina. She was renowned for her NOBLE Character. She accompanied Germanicus in his Campaigns, and on his sudden and suspicious death in Asia carried his ashes to Rome. The esteem in which she was held by the people made her hateful to TIBERIUS. In A.D. 30 he had her banished to the island of PANDATARIA. She starved herself to death.

Arippina killed herself in exile; and another of her sons, hoping her imprisoned starved herself to death.

DURANT

Rome had a business "panic" Tiberius severely limited the governmental expenditure & hoarded 2,700,000,000 sesterces in the Treasury. Money was drained to exchange for luxuries. Prices fell interest rates rose, creditors foreclosed on debtors. Debtors sued creditors, and money lending almost ceased.

The Senate tried to check the outflow of capital by requiring a high percentage of every senator's fortune to be invested in Italian land; senators thereupon called in loans, freedland mortgages to raise cash and the crisis rose. Publius Sp. Nthier told bankers Publius & OLLIVS, he must withdraw 30,000,000 sesterces, they announced bankruptcy. Also, an Alexandrian firm sent 3 ships & 2 more lost 3 ships & declared bankruptcy

DURANT

Panic. Rumors that the Roman banking house of MAXIMUS and VIBO would be broken by extreme losses. When depositors began a "run" on the bank, it shut its doors, and later in that day a larger bank, of the brothers PETRIUS also suspended payment. Almost simultaneously came news that great banking establishments had failed in LYONS, CARTHAGE, CORINATH & BYZANTIUM, One after another bank of Rome closed. Money could be borrowed only at rates far above the 12% legal limit.

Tiberius suspended the land-investing act & distributed 100,000,000 sesterces to the banks to be lent without interest for 3 yrs on the security of realty.

Confidence slowly returned!
